IRISCENTER

Inclusion of Students with Significant Cognitive Disabilities:
Supports in the General Education Classroom

K!

Related Modules

- Accommodations: Instructional and Testing Supports for Students with Disabilities
- Creating an Inclusive Environment: A Model for School Leaders
- IEPs: Developing High-Quality Individualized Education Programs
- Related Services: Common Supports for Students with Disabilities
- Universal Design for Learning: Designing Learning Experiences That Engage and Challenge All Students

Video Vignettes

- Accessing the General Education Curriculum: Students with Disabilities

Inclusion of Students with Significant Cognitive Disabilities:
Supports in the General Education Classroom

Activities

- Accommodations Versus Modifications
- Disability Awareness: Adaptive Skills
- Disability Awareness: Perceptions About Disabilities
- Family Engagement: Involving All Families

Select Information Briefs

- 10 Reasons to Support Inclusive School Communities for ALL Students
- Developing IEPs that Support Inclusive Education for Students with the Most Significant Cognitive Disabilities
- Considering LRE in Placement Decisions
- Debunking Myths about Inclusive Education for Students with the Most Significant Cognitive Disabilities
- High Expectations for Students with Multiple Impairments

Interviews

- Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
- Considerations for IEP Development